the attacks of illness, that I now and again suffered from.

1 forgot to tell my readers, that I used to get very severe attacks of fever and spasms, even after I had come over to the lunatic asylum, just before the fever started, temperature fell very low and there came on me such severe fits of spasms during those attacks, that it became almost impossible for the man attendant on me, to keep me under control. I began kicking and fidgeting and butting my head against the wall, running altogether wild like a mad maii. By and by as the temperature rose and the body became warm, the spasms left me and I fell into a semi-conscious state of delirium; seeing all sorts of luminous visions and fanciful dreams. When the D.G. wanted to know what I saw in those visions, my impression as to their import and significance with reference to the future, seemed to lead me to some very ominous conclusions, of which I made no secret and told him plainly what I thought, 1 seem to see, as if the whole world is coming to its end, these were just the words that came to my mind, and I gave that out to him in so many words. The D. G. in answer said
